E. SUMMARY

I could see a man that had black or dark brown hair. He seemed to be middle-aged and he wore black glasses. It seemed as though he was looking at something. His face was looking down.

I could see a group of people standing together and it looked as though they were in a dance movement. This group looked like they were men and they may have been wearing costumes or ornaments. When looking at the group of people, I could see red and yellow or gold. The group of people were standing outside and the weather seemed warm.

Water may be at the site but it is not of prime importance.
